The Barefoot Dance Center offers classes in modern dance, creative movement, improvisation and choreography to boys and girls of all different ages and sizes. We teach in our studio located in West Park, NY, as well as in school settings. Our goal is to unleash the creative potential of every student through physical and imaginative activities.

Artist-In-Residence Programs:

Curricular Integration Partnership Recommended schedule: 1 planning session, 1 to 10 sessions.

This inter-disciplinary program is based on and enhances a specific theme being studied at school. The students gain a deeper understanding of their topic through creative and physical experiences.

Dance as an Art Form Recommended schedule: 5-15 sessions.

We explore the many different elements of dance, such as movement, shape, space, rhythm, and expression. Creative process is emphasized during the study of this joyful, athletic art form. All participants learn to be dancers, choreographers and collaborators.

Choreography Recommended schedule: 2 rehearsals per song/10 rehearsals for original piece.

The artist is available to work with the Theater and Musical Directors to choreograph for specific musicals or school projects. Original modern dance piece can be created for performance.

Dance Exercise Recommended schedule: semester-long course or individual Master Class.

All classes are designed to challenge students' coordination and rhythm, raise the heart rate to an aerobic work-out level and strengthen muscles. This fun class is an excellent way to improve the overall health of students.

As artists, we are excited to tailor our offerings to meet the specific needs of your school or program. Please call the studio to discuss the possibilities.

The BareFacts:

Fees:

- Daily Fee: $350 (based on 4 or 5 forty-minute classes or 3 or 4 sixty-minute classes)

Biography

Jessie Levey has taught in many public and parochial schools through the Lincoln Center Institute. With the Institute, Jessie trained classroom teachers to incorporate the arts into their curricula. Over the course of fifteen years, Jessie was also a member of the dance faculties at Dalton and Poly Prep Lower Schools and directed a teenage dance company at the Brooklyn Arts Exchange. In 2002, Jessie Levey moved to West Park, NY, where she opened the Barefoot Dance Center. She has been the resident choreographer for all musicals at the Oakwood Friends School for the past three years. Resume and references are available upon request.
